

The California School of Design

SAN FRANCISCO INSTITUTE OF ART

(Formerly The Mark Hopkins Institute of Art)

Affiliated College of the University of California

THIRTY-NINTH YEAR

REGULAR SESSION

FOUNDATION AND AFFILIATION

The California School of Design was founded by the San Francisco Art Association in 1874. In 1893 it was affiliated with the University of California, thereby becoming privileged to confer a University Certificate of Proficiency in the graphic arts.

SCHOOL TERMS

The First Term of the School year begins August 5th and closes December 20th, 1912; the Second Term begins January 6th and closes May 15th, 1913.

The Saturday Class continues in session throughout the year. In addition to the Christmas and Summer vacations the School is closed on the following legal holidays: Admission Day, Thanksgiving Day and Washington's Birthday.

CLASSIFICA-TION OF STUDENTS

Students on entering the School are placed in the Department of Preparatory Drawing unless studies are submitted entitling them to take a higher course.

Students are classified as Regular and Special. Regular students are those who take the daily work in the entire Academic or Regular Course. Special students are those who attend the Night or Saturday Classes or take a single study only in the day classes.

A Teachers' Course is provided for those students who wish to become instructors of art. It includes the Regular Course together with certain special studies elsewhere enumerated.

CERTIFI-CATES

The University Certificate of Proficiency is given to students who pass the required examinations in Painting, Drawing, Modeling, Composition, Perspective and Anatomy.

The Teacher's Certificate is granted to students who successfully pursue the prescribed studies and pass the final examinations. The Course embraces Painting, Drawing, Modeling, Composition, Perspective, Anatomy, Decorative Art, History of Art and Practice in Teaching.

Examinations are held at the end of the School year and only Regular Students who have attended the School at least one year are eligible.

PRIVILEGES

The Art Gallery of the Institute is open to the pupils of the School during the term.

The Library and Reading Room containing the current magazines and art periodicals are also at the service of the pupils.

COMPETI-TIONS AND AWARDS

Prize Competitions are held from time to time during the year.

ART ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIPS

The Art Association offers six annual scholarships to the most deserving pupils of the School.

THE PARIS MEDAL AND SCHOLARSHIP

Arrangements have been made whereby a collection of the best drawings done in the Life Class of the School are selected by the Faculty once a year and forwarded to Paris for consideration by a Jury of the Julian Academy. The author of the work adjudged best receives a silver medal, known as the Julian Academy Medal, and a year's free tuition in certain of the ateliers of the Academy.
